FLOOR PLANS & SET MODEL

REMEMBRANCE OF THE DALEKS

Interior scenes for Remembrance of the Daleks were recorded in Studio 8 at BBC Television Centre between 27 and 29 April 1988.

The photos in this PDF are of the studio set model for the first day of recording on Wednesday 27 April. As well as showing the sets of the school corridor, the cellar and the Dalek mothership bridge, the model also shows the sets for Harry's café and the army command HQ hall.

The studio floor plan is for Thursday 28 April with the café and army hall sets having been replaced with those of the Smiths' living room and the Dalek shuttle bridge.
